WILLIAM AUSTIN.

Mr. William Austin died last night at 10:40 at the home of his aunt, Mrs. William Carver, in Commerce street, after a protracted illness with consumption, aged 40 years.

He is a son of James Austin and a native of this city.

He was a cigarmaker by trade.

The funeral will be under the auspices of the Cigarmakers' Union, and will occur from the home in Commerce street tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, with services by Rev. G. W. Bunton. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED

Colored Men Arrested at Vanceburg For Cruelty to Horse

Arthur Brown, James Wood, Bert Lewis and Lee Spencer, the colored men from this city arrested in Vanceburg for mistreating a horse, were dismissed, there not being a particle of evidence against them.

Judge John L. Whitaker appeared for the defendants.

After the men had been discharged from custody Mr. Lee Walker, who had the warrant issued, called them into an office, and paid them the expense of their lawyer fees, which amounted to $40.

It's a safe bet that President STEVENS of the C. and O. would not for a day tolerate his whistle-blowing and bell-ringing fiends in front of his home. Mr. STEVENS ought to hunt up and read that old and honorable chestnut, the Golden Rule.

THE Washington Post, in a leading editorial, discusses Secretary TAFT as a Presidential possibility—

"Mr. TAFT may be the next President of the United States. Certainly he is an eminent citizen, a great jurist, a capable statesman. It is not unlikely that the people will be looking for a man mightily like WILLIAM H. TAFT in 1908. If he should be nominated, his Tariff views will bring him hundreds of thousands of votes that ordinarily a stand-patter could not get."

AND now the Eastern Democrats are swearing by the Great Horned Spoon that BILLY BRYAN's double-action mouth is responsible for Republican success in Maine. If he hadn't shot himself off on the Government ownership of railroads, the Democrats would have carried that state. But here comes Mr. GOMPERS and says he cut down the Republican vote with his little hatchet.

A GENTLEMAN of this city was flattered by a most cordial invitation to attend the BRYAN reception in Cincinnati, being promised a seat right close up to the Peerless One. Digging down a little further into the envelope, however, he unearthed a request for $1 to help pay the expenses of the aforesaid reception—and this took all the flattery out of the proposition. He didn't go; neither did the $.

In addition to editing the assassination syndicate in Breathitt county and the Democratic State Central Committee, Judge JAMES HARGIS of Jackson, b'gosh, has started out to edit the Editors of his town. He "read the riot act" to the Breathitt News Man, warning him "not to put his name in his paper no more." It is possible that Mr. HARGIS's censorship may be extended to all papers in the state, for no contract seems to have been too big for the illustrious Judge to tackle.

A LEADING Democrat in Washington in an interview states that he believes Mr. BRYAN is absolutely honest in his Government ownership idea, just as he was on the money question ten years ago. He adds that he believes Mr. BRYAN will stand by his utterances until he sees them beaten in the next National Convention; and he might have added that WILLIE will tumble only after he himself is snowed under by an avalanche of votes, after which he will scratch out and proclaim some other Populist tommyrot.

BESTED.

President Hadley of Yale was talking about his student days, says The Philadelphia Bulletin.

"I remember a stately and venerable Professor," he said, "upon whom some sophomores once tried to play a trick."

"The Professor, one morning, being unable to attend to his classes on account of a cold, wrote on the blackboard—

"Dr. Dash, through indisposition, is unable to attend to his classes today."

"The students erased one letter in this notice, making it read—

"Dr. Dash, through indisposition, is unable to attend his classes today."

"But it happened, a few minutes later, that the Professor returned for a box he had forgotten. Amid a roar of laughter he detected the change in his notice, and, approaching the blackboard, calmly erased one letter in his turn.

"Now the notice read—

"Dr. Dash, through indisposition, is unable to attend to his classes today."

There was a decided change in the atmosphere last night, which came as a welcome relief from the oppressive heat endured the past week.

BEATING PEOPLE

One of Numerous "Evangelists" Makes a "Killing" Here

There arrived in this city a few weeks ago an itinerant evangelist and his wife, whose card reads—

REV. A. G. TIPPETTS,
CINCINNATI.

Bible Christian Mission. Residence,
319 West Seventh street. 619 West Fourth street

After engaging the Courthouse for a lecture and stereoscopic entertainment he and his wife canvassed the city selling admission tickets for the show that night.

Having use for a guitar in the performance, he visited the music store of Mr. F. F. Gerbrich in West Second street and borrowed one for the occasion.

There being a counter free attraction of a similar character given on the Market Street Esplanade, Rev. Tippett failed to attract a corporal's guard, which resulted in his not giving a performance, and in consequence he lost out and was stranded in the town.

Next morning he called on Mr. Gerbrich, told a pitiful story about his financial condition and stated that he needed the guitar in his business, and that if the gentleman would accept his note for amount that he would liquidate the obligation as soon as he could raise the money.

The instrument changed ownership on these conditions.

After waiting a month or more and not hearing from him, Mr. Gerbrich wrote the Mission House and in reply received a letter from the Lancelet Clinic Company, into whose hands the letter had fallen, in which the statement was made that the Reverend gentleman was a fraud of the first water and had left unpaid numerous bills in Cincinnati when he took his departure.

The letter further stated that the "Bible Christian Mission" refers only to the one established by the Reverend gentleman himself—a small hall, for which he failed to pay the rent. While Mr. Gerbrich is somewhat poorer in purse he is richer in experience.

This same man was give a charity pass for himself and wife to Flemingsburg by Mayor Stallecup.

Bible College Centennial Day will be celebrated September 27th in Louisville in the State Convention of the Christian Church. Miss Mary A. Finch of Mayslick is on the program for a paper on "The Purpose of State Bible School Work."

OLD KENTUCKY DAY

General B. W. Duke Will Speak at the Fall Festival

Friday, September 21st, the last but one of Cincinnati's great Fall Festival, has been set aside by the Board of Directors as "Daughters of the Confederacy Day." Thousands of Southern people, not only from the Southern states themselves, but from all over the North as well, are expected to be present and the day will probably be one of the biggest during the entire four weeks of the Exposition.

General Basil W. Duke of Louisville has been sent an official letter of invitation by President Otto Armleder of the Fall Festival, urging him to be present on that day, and to make an address Friday afternoon in Music Hall. It is said that he will accept. Other noted Confederates, including Colonel William Elliott of South Carolina, have also been invited and will attend the Festival on that day. Colonel Elliott is in charge of the graves on Johnson's Island in Lake Erie where 206 Confederate dead lie buried. Of these 156 were Masons. These soldiers died during imprisonment in the Johnson's Island stockade.

One of the biggest concessions at the Fall Festival was given the Daughters of Confederacy. They were provided with a huge tent in which a "Southern Luncheon" is being served during the Festival. The proceeds are to be used in putting the graves of the Confederate dead on Johnson Island in order and to erect a monument to the 206 dead. Thousands of people daily patronize this concession thereby indorsing the work of these noble women.

Friday, September 21st, will also be "Kentucky Day," and Governor Beckham and his staff with other prominent Kentuckians will be extended invitations.

Yesterday a load of wheat weighing 8,000 pounds, consigned to Rains Bros., was the first heavy haul to pass over the new brick street in West Third. That part of the street from Wall to Court will be thrown open to traffic Monday.

Wednesday afternoon a charming euchre was given by Mrs. Hattie Mitchell at her handsome home near Mayslick. The following Maysville women were among the fortunate guests: Mesdames Lewis Parry, Henry Davidson, Benjamin Gasner, John Hunt; Misses Grace Anderson, Harriet Johnson, Lida and Florence Rogers. The first prize, a cut-glass bon-bon dish, was won by Miss Florence Rogers; the second, a rope of beads, recently brought from Venice by Mrs. Mitchell, was awarded Mrs. Davidson, while the third prize, a souvenir teaspoon, was Mrs. Gus Brooks' trophy.

Mrs. Lewis M. McCarthey entertained delightfully with cards Thursday afternoon in the Casino at Beechwood. Mrs. McCarthey was assisted by Mesdames Edward Geisel and Lud Hamilton. Delicious refreshments were served, after which handsome prizes were awarded Mesdames Lewis Patton, George Bruce, Clarence Wood and Edward Geisel.

Notice!

That pursuant to an ordinance adopted by the Board of Council on the 3d day of September, 1906, the qualified voters of the city of Maysville are hereby summoned to meet at the City Hall, to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1906, the following proposition will be submitted to them to be voted on at said election—

"Are you in favor of the city of Maysville entering into an indebtedness of $60,000 for the purpose of purchasing two lots of ground and constructing on each lot a Public City School Building, and authorizing the Board of Education to levy a tax bearing 4% interest per annum from date, interest payable semi-annually, and levying 8 cents on each $100 worth of taxable property, or so much thereof as will be necessary, on all assessable property of the city of Maysville, for the payment of the bonds attached to the bonds as they become due; and that beginning with the year 1913, there shall be levied and collected 20 cents on each $100 worth, or so much as may be necessary, on all assessed value of taxable property of the city of Maysville, bearing 4% interest per annum, for the payment of the bonds of $6,000 each year for ten consecutive years, beginning with 1913 and ending with 1922?"

JAMES W. OUTTEN,
City Clerk City of Maysville, Ky.

Lexington's City Assessor has decided to place a tax on duplicate stocks and other property to the value of $500,000 belonging to Mrs. Julia Walsh of St. Louis, who claims she is not a resident of Lexington and legally cannot be taxed there.

River News

The gage marks 5.6 and falling.

The Tacoma will be down today from points above.

The S. S. Brown will be ready to leave Pittsburgh October 1st.

Dam No. 2 will be the first of the Ohio river dams to be formally opened.

The Sprague is going down the Mississippi light on account of low water.

The sandbar on the opposite side of the river is showing up in large proportions.

The corps of Engineers have completed their work of surveying the Ohio river from Louisville to Cairo.

The John A. Wood and Joe B. Williams, which left Pittsburgh last month with tons of coal, have arrived at New Orleans.

The Executive Committee of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association has adopted a novel educational scheme for the promotion of the betterment of the river by the lock and dam system. The Committee has planned to have a series of photographs taken of the progress of the work and improvements which have been installed by the completion of the work on the upper river. It is figured that this method will appeal in a greater measure than other plans which have been in vogue for several years.

The farm is all under fence, and partition fences separate the land in suitable acres for pasture. More than 30 acres are in orchard, 300 acres are now suitable for tobacco, and within two years there will be 300 more acres of tobacco land.

Will sell this tract of land at $40 per acre on long time, if desired, to a reliable party. This farm properly cultivated would be a fortune to a large family. On this farm is located the best limestone quarry on the Ohio river.

Correspondence
SPRINGDALE.

Mr. John Craycraft of Plainville, O., was here Friday.

Messrs. J. W. Tully and Louis Jenkins are visiting relatives at Hamilton, O.

Mrs. J. W. Tully and daughter, Miss Louise, were guests of relatives here Thursday.

Mr. Sam Osborne is Station Agent for the C. and O. while Mr. Thompson is absent.

Mr. Ross Thompson is taking his vacation, and with his family, will visit Washington, D. C., and other Eastern cities.

Rev. and Mrs. Russell returned from Vanceburg Wednesday and are guests of Mr. Riggan and his niece, Miss Ryan.

If those residents in Forest avenue had visited the "clump of trees" into which the "queer looking birds" descended they would, in all probability, have soon discovered the attraction as well as "species" to which the birds belonged. "Where the carcass is, the eagles will be gathered together."

How Johnnie became a hero: It was the first day of school and to Johnnie it was the very "first day." His mamma had come to the door with him. He felt very lonely when she went away. There were so many boys and girls and they were so large and strange. He only knew Helen. Directly the bell jingled and all became quiet. The teacher stood up and began to say beautiful kindly words in a musical voice. She was saying how glad she was to meet them again and how much work they were all going to do, when suddenly Johnnie screamed out, "Oh! Miss Della, there is a mouse; may I catch it?" The musical voice quickly changed to a tremulous one as she answered "Why, certainly, dear, if you can." Johnnie darted from his desk toward the corner where the intruder had retreated, he knocked over the broom, an umbrella or two, then a box of papers, then a snatched grab and high above his head like a flash went the little hand, when thud to the floor went the dreadful creature and instantly it was in the land where all "caught mouses" go. Johnnie found himself surrounded by admiring girls and boys as he turned to go to his desk, while the teacher exclaimed, "My dear Johnnie, we welcome you indeed, for you are a hero."

Mrs. Walter Rudy of the West End, who has been quite sick, is convalescing.

SEED TIME!

An important period in farm life. Every precaution should be taken to provide an abundant increase at

HARVEST TIME!

Owing to the peculiar seeding device upon the Champion Drill, a patented feature, we are firmly convinced that wheat sowed by this Drill will produce a more abundant yield than any other seeding device.

Our Opinion is Based Upon Experience

Covering a period of 8 years with this Drill.

Surely We Cannot Be Mistaken!

At any rate your duty is to take every possible precaution in seeding. You owe it to yourself to take an hour off and examine this patent Drill. The principle is so plain that any one can readily see into it.

STOPS ANY ITCHING.

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles. Maysville People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Maysville testimony to prove it:

Miss Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment
which was published in our Maysville papers.
I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy, procured at J. Jas.
Wood & Son's Drugstore. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence.
A friend of mine also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment, and was absolutely cured."
